A little history...

London Florals,
c. 1915 by Nancy Gere

London Florals collection represents the best of the small calico designs styled in the UK at the turn of the century. Delicate watercolor florals and detailed prints combine on a soft palette that is somehow subtle and bold at the same time. The artistic colorings are featured throughout the lush bouquets and vivid botanicals and make for a singular style that is truly unique.

The designs, reminiscent of late 19th/early 20th Century patterns which were originally blockprinted by hand and later imitated by the cheaper roller method, feature a casual elegance sure to spur some exciting creations among quilt enthusiasts.
