

Greet the Day!

Sewing:

1. Sew a fabric Q sunflower strip to the right side of one of the two fabric Q scenes. Sew a fabric Q sunflower strip to the left side of the remaining fabric Q scene.
2. Sew (10) fabric I, (3) fabric D, (4) fabric E and (3) fabric F 2" squares together checkerboard style. Make 2. Sew one of these strips to the top of the scene with sunflowers on the left and the remaining strip to the bottom of the scene with the sunflowers on the left. Use the fabric C. Sew the fabric A vertical borders to the opposite sides of the quilt center and the fabric A horizontal borders to the top and bottom of the quilt center.
3. Sew the fabric I piece to the top of a fabric F 6-1/2" x 16-1/2" piece. Sew this strip to the right side of the quilt assembly made in step 2. Press seams.
4. Sew a fabric K border piece and a fabric D border piece together, then sew to the left side of the quilt. Sew a fabric F and a fabric N piece together and sew to the right side of the quilt.
5. Sew the top border together using border pieces in this order: fabric B, fabric N, fabric G, fabric C and fabric L. Sew the border to the quilt top. Sew the bottom border together using border pieces in this order: fabric L, fabric C, fabric M, fabric G, and fabric J. Sew the border to the bottom of the quilt.
6. Position the fussy cut fabric O and P pictures on the border on all 4 sides of the quilt. Topstitch in place.

Finishing:

7. Layer the quilt top, batting and backing. Baste, then quilt the layers together.
9. Cut the binding strips in half to make 2-1/4" x 22" pieces, then sew together end-to-end alternating fabric I and fabric H binding strips. Fold the binding lengthwise and sew to quilt top. Turn binding to back of quilt and stitch in place.

ENJOY!
